One of the few undammed U.S. rivers!

The Withlacoochee River flows in its unruly tea-colored blackwater splendor past cypress, river birch, oaks, pines, herons, turtles, and alligators, through Nashville and Valdosta, over south Georgia shoals and springs, by Pinetta and Madison Blue Spring State Park in north Florida, to the Suwannee River. www.wwals.net

The Little River runs through Tifton to Reed Bingham State Park (RBSP) (pictured), home of the annual WWALS BIG Little River Paddle Race, between Moultrie and Adel. Undammed below RBSP, the Little River flows between Barney and Hahira, and joins the Withlacoochee outside Valdosta in Lowndes County, the largest Suwannee Basin population center.
