

Hydrologic Conditions

- Typical spill in Valdosta occurs during high rains and high flow conditions
- This spill due to human error and occurred during very low flow conditions
- Likely did not reach Withlacoochee at 84 yet due to low flows
- Hard to predict travel times without flow data for Sugar Creek and Withlacoochee above Little River
- Rain events that may increase flow and may also help dilute remaining sewage