

AFFECTED RESOURCE
The refuge is open to multiple public uses, include all six of the wildlife-dependent recreation uses; hunting and fishing, interpretation and environmental education, wildlife photography and observation. The refuge hosts an average of 20,000 recreational visits each year.	Alternative A and B All other public uses on the refuge will not change and will continue to be managed as described in current plans. Alternative B: Conflicts between hunting and non-hunting recreational users will be minimal due to the administration by Georgia DNR.
