

same extent as the third party would transact such matter with me. Third parties who act in reliance upon the representations of my agent shall be held harmless by me, my estate, the beneficiaries of my estate, or joint owners of property from any loss suffered or liability incurred as a result of actions taken prior to receipt of written notice of revocation, suspension, notice of a petition to determine incapacity, partial or complete termination, or my death. Any third party may rely upon a copy of this durable power of attorney certified by my agent to be a true copy of the original hereof, as fully as if such third party had received an original of this durable power of attorney.

ARTICLE VII

My agent shall not be liable for any acts or decisions made in good faith and in conformity with the powers enumerated in this durable power of attorney. However, my agent shall not be relieved from liability for breach of duty committed dishonestly, with improper motive, or with reckless indifference to me or the purposes of this durable power of attorney.

ARTICLE VIII

My agent shall have the power to pay a reasonable fee from my estate to each agent who is a qualified agent as defined in Section 709.2112(4), Florida Statutes as compensation for services rendered under this durable power of attorney in an amount which does not exceed the customary and prevailing charges for services of a similar character at the time and place such services are performed. My agent shall also be entitled to reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred on my behalf.

ARTICLE IX

I hereby revoke all prior general powers of attorney executed by me. However, I do not hereby revoke any powers of attorney I have previously executed for a limited or specific purpose, or powers of attorney I have executed as part of a contract for the management of any bank or brokerage account. If I desire to revoke any such prior limited or specific power of attorney, I will execute a revocation specifically referring to the power of attorney to be revoked.

ARTICLE X

This durable power of attorney is not terminated by subsequent incapacity of the principal except as provided in chapter 709, Florida Statutes. This durable power of attorney shall terminate by one or more of the following circumstances:

- (1) My death;
- (2) The death or deaths of all agents named in the first paragraph of this durable power of attorney; or
