

(a) There is induced movement of a contamination plume or the alteration of the rate or direction of the movement of a contamination plume towards an OFS or its spring run.

(b) Dewatering discharges cause harmful water quality impacts to the OFS or its spring run.

(c) Withdrawals cause an increase in total dissolved solids (TDS) or chloride concentrations that detrimentally affects the OFS or its spring run.

(d) Hydrologic alterations to the spring cause adverse impacts to the aquatic or wetland dependent flora or fauna in the spring.

(e) Hydrologic alterations to the spring decrease flow rates of downgradient watercourses that cause adverse impacts to aquatic or wetland dependent flora or fauna.

Rulemaking Authority: 373.026, 373.219, 373.813, FS. Law Implemented: 373.219, FS.