

The Okefenokee National Wildlife Refuge has nearly 120-miles of water trails that visitors can explore.

A person wearing a wide-brimmed hat and a brown shirt is seated in a red kayak on a calm body of water. The kayak is positioned behind a large, dark brown wooden sign that reads "ENTERING NATIONAL WILDERNESS AREA" in white, bold, capital letters. The sign is mounted on a wooden post. The background shows a dense forest of trees and a clear blue sky. The water is still, reflecting the surrounding environment.
