

Lafayette Blue State Park

Continuing further south along the Suwannee is a large collection of parcels that would buffer the park from surrounding phosphate mines and agriculture. The acquisition of these parcels would expand wildlife habitat and continue to put portions of the Suwannee Riverbank and surrounding land in conservation status