

Final Report

- December 2009 – Sinkhole forms under the Swift Creek phosphogypsum stack at the Swift Creek Complex
- June 2012 – Tropical Storm Debby
- February 2013 – Hamilton County Board of County Commissioners considering five-year renewal of Special Permit 03-1 for PCS Phosphate
- February 2015 – PCS entering in Consent Decree No. 14-707-BAJ-SCR with U.S. EPA to reduce sulfur dioxide (SO<sub>2</sub>) air emissions at their U.S. production plants
- 2015 – Four separate companies purchased lands from Bienville Plantation
- March 2017 - PCS provided Hamilton County an updated Corporate Guarantee for Hamilton County Reclamation
- September 2016 - Agrium and PotashCorp (Parent company of PCS Phosphate) agreed to join as a “merger of equals”, creating a new company, Nutrien Ltd.
- September 2017 - Florida Hurricane Irma
- 2021 - Companies that purchased lands from Bienville Plantation in 2017 sold to King Baker Holdings, LLC. In February 2021
- 2021 – Nutrien applying to County and FDEP permission to mine and reclaim G Land areas.
- December 2022 - Nutrien provided Hamilton County a Standby Trust Agreement and an Irrevocable Standby Letter of Credit, #OSB267175NYA from The Bank of Nova Scotia for Hamilton County Reclamation