

Water Resource Evaluation Results

- There are springs, rivers, and lakes that are currently not meeting or projected to not meet their MFLs.
- There are waterbodies without MFLs that are exceeding the screening criteria.
- There are wetlands with moderate to high potential for adverse changes.
- There are wells with increasing chloride trends and areas of elevated chloride concentrations.