

Conclusions

- Projected 135 mgd increase in groundwater demand from 2015 to 2045
- Future demand cannot be met with traditional sources without potential impacts to water resources
- NFRWSP identifies 158 mgd of project options and that meet future demand while sustaining water resources and related natural systems