

FECR expects to be operating LNG powered trains on these southernmost routes alongside passenger trains. Scheduling for both classes of traffic have not yet been defined, but FECR does not plan to segregate freight trains using LNG as fuel from passenger trains.