

Paddle

129 miles of the 202-mile Alapaha River

blackwater

tea-colored by tannic acid

from south Georgia

to north Florida

*Alapaha River
Water Trail*

From overhanging cypress, pines, and oaks to beaches, shoals, and sinks, with blue herons, turtles, alligators, and fish. Plus Banks Lake National Wildlife Refuge, the Alapahoochee River, the Dead River Sink, and the Alapaha River Rise