

SE ENVIRONMENTAL GEOLOGY.
DENNIS J. PRICE, P.G.
P.O. BOX 45
WHITE SPRINGS, FL 32096
MOB 362-8189, den1@windstream.net

RESUME FOR DENNIS J. PRICE, P.G.

EDUCATION

B.S. Geology, Florida State University - 1975

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATION

Florida Professional Geologist License # 2696

WORK HISTORY

Occidental Chemical Company, White Springs, FL (4/74 - 9/83)

Exploration and mining geologist, design and implementation of drilling programs, mine planning, mining supervisor, built and maintained data base for mineral evaluation.

Florida Department of Environmental Protection (9/83 – 2/88)

Administered a sub-regional office of the FDEP. Liaison between local and state environmental regulatory offices, and Water Management Districts. Worked in solid and hazardous waste permitting, wetlands and enforcement of regulations.

Suwannee River Water Management District (2/88 – 5/94)

Worked with the USGS in evaluating the surface water resources of the District. Designed networks for data collection, collected the data and built databases to evaluate scientific data. Worked in Water Well and Water Use Permitting. Enforcement Officer for the District, working with attorney's bringing violations to Administrative Hearings. Visited and evaluated sinkhole complaints around the District

SE Environmental Geology (5/94 – present) Owner

Licensed Water Well Contractor(not active), drilled public supply wells, residential wells, designed and implemented groundwater monitoring designs and plans for solid and hazardous waste sites. Our business provides clients with professional environmental permitting services, geologic investigations, mining planning, geo-chemistry, wetland delineation, wetland impact and mitigation planning.