

WWALS Fundraiser

Featuring Readings by Janisse Ray

WWALS Watershed Coalition: Willacoochee, Withlacoochee, Alapaha and Little River System

WWALS is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to the conservation of this watershed.

Plans include assessing the effects, such as flooding and water quality, on the watershed by invasive species, construction and other human mediated activities using existing survey tools; distribution of educational materials and information on stewardship programs to landowners; presentations and volunteer training sessions to raise public awareness and recruit volunteers; improvement of hunting, fishing and other recreational activities through watershed conservation.

Your tax deductible donation to WWALS is greatly appreciated!

Janisse Ray

is an American writer, naturalist, and environmental activist. Her titles include:

Ecology of a Cracker Childhood, Wild Card Quilt: Taking a Chance on Home, Between Two Rivers: Stories from the Red Hills to the Gulf, Pinhook: Finding Wholeness in a Fragmented Land,
A House of Branches, Drifting into Darien: a Personal and Natural History of the Altamaha River and The Seed Underground: A Growing Revolution to Save Food.

Ray lives and works on a family farm in southern Georgia.

Art

Family Event $5-Individual/$10-Family

Music

- ♦ 3-4 pm: Art show and Silent auction: Bring your favorite river or watershed photo or art for the art show. Bid on silent auction items
- ♦ 4-5 pm: Readings by Janisse Ray
- ♦ 5-6 pm: Pot Luck - Bring your favorite covered dish to share
- ♦ (Silent Auction bidding ends at 5:00pm)

Live music will be provided by First Methodist Church Bluegrass Band

When: Saturday Afternoon, May 11, 2013 from 3-6pm

Where: Blackshank Pavilion, 457 N. Carpenter Road, Tifton, GA

See www.wwals.net for more information

Donations are tax deductible